Three Little Facts For Christmas.

Christmas was first kept as a holy day in A. D. 336. For three centuries it was the most sacred of festivals.

The date December 25 was selected in the fourth century by a council of theologians.

In the belief of the early Christians, which makes it probable that the date was chosen, it was believed that the stars would be visible, and that the stars would
